

Brian Wiens is Vice President, Statistics and Data Science, at ACELYRIN, INC. In this role, he oversees data collection, storage, analysis and interpretation of clinical studies. Prior to joining ACELYRIN, he held various positions in the pharmaceutical, biotechnology and contract research organization industries since 1991. Dr. Wiens received his undergraduate degree from Tabor College, his Masters degree from Colorado State University, and his doctorate from Temple University. He is a fellow of the American Statistical Association.